ILM Level 5

Management Coaching & Mentoring through professional coaching and supervision

Time & Tide

The ILM Level 5 Programmes in Management Coaching and Mentoring are highly respected qualifications that give practising and aspiring managers and consultants the opportunity to develop in their role as a coach or mentor. They will help gain a detailed understanding of the coaching role, the knowledge and skills required to implement a programme of coaching or mentoring for individual clients and the opportunity to put this into practice whilst receiving coaching and supervision. They are delivered through a blend of learning tailored to the needs of each student. They are demanding programmes but the rewards can be very high.

The Programmes

The programmes are centred on the delivery of management coaching or mentoring in the workplace. Students build a business case for a coaching or mentoring programme that will have a real impact for their organisation or client. Students use reflective practice in supervision sessions to review and develop their performance. The programme of learning offers a combination of coaching and supervision sessions, set readings, individually defined CPD, online learning and reflective reviews. Students develop their management coaching or mentoring capability supported by their coach, focusing on achieving tangible impacts for their clients and their organisations, whilst applying their learning to the workplace and then assessing the results.

Progression routes

ILM Level 5 qualifications are highly respected professional development awards in their own right. Achievement at this level offers a progression route to the ILM L7 qualifications in Executive Coaching and Leadership Mentoring.
